Dear Friend,

I returned to Washington this week as Congress picks up health care reform legislation once again. Although we talked at length about the provisions of H.R. 3200 when I was home in California, it is important that I continue to hear from you. Please take a moment to respond to this short survey on the impact of specific provisions in H.R. 3200.

Sincerely,

Daniel E. Lungren
Member of Congress

I believe health care reform legislation including a public option would

- ☐ result in more Americans being insured
- ☐ result in privately-insured Americans being forced into the government-run plan
- ☐ result in no net difference in the number of uninsured Americans
- ☐ unsure

I believe health care reform legislation including a public option would

- ☐ improve quality of care
- ☐ compromise quality of care
- ☐ neither improve nor compromise quality of care
- ☐ unsure

I believe health care reform legislation including a public option would

- ☐ lead to increased access to care
- ☐ lead to rationing of care
- ☐ have no impact on availability of care
- ☐ unsure

I believe health care reform legislation including a public option would

- ☐ decrease health care costs
- ☐ increase health care costs
- ☐ not change health care costs
- ☐ unsure

I believe health care reform legislation including a public option would

- ☐ increase competition among health insurance companies
- ☐ decrease competition among health insurance companies
- ☐ not impact competition among health insurance companies
- ☐ unsure

What, if anything, should be added to health care reform legislation? (choose multiple)

- ☐ medical malpractice reform
- ☐ health care exchanges
- ☐ spending offsets/increased taxes to make it budget neutral
- ☐ elimination of current restrictions on consumers buying insurance across state lines
- ☐ fines on individual Americans who do not purchase health insurance
- ☐ single-payer system
- ☐ nothing - it is fine as is
- ☐ nothing - it should be abandoned altogether
- ☐ unsure
- ☐ other

What, if anything, should be removed from health care reform legislation? (choose multiple)

- ☐ public option
- ☐ employer mandate
- ☐ health information technology
- ☐ best practices
- ☐ nothing - it is fine as is
- ☐ nothing - it should be abandoned altogether
- ☐ unsure
- ☐ other

What else do you want Congress to know about health care reform legislation?
